

Abkhazia backup power

Overview

Russia will begin providing emergency electricity to Abkhazia, a breakaway Georgian region, starting Monday, local officials confirmed. The humanitarian aid follows an appeal from Abkhazia's leadership, which described the current power shortages as a “humanitarian catastrophe. Badra Gunba, the self-proclaimed president of the separatist territory, has warned of dire consequences unless immediate action is taken to. Russian authorities have started delivering “humanitarian” electricity to the breakaway Georgian region of Abkhazia to alleviate a severe energy crisis, Interfax reported Monday, citing the region's energy and transportation ministry.
